THE L. & N. train due here at 10:15 p. m., was delayed several hours Wednesday night, being forced to come over the C. & O. track to Maysville, thence to Paris, on account of a washout near Covington. The 10:15 train yesterday morning was two hours late from the same cause. The 5:30 train last night was two hours late.

The Jackson-Walling Hanging.

THE scaffold to be used at Newport tomorrow at the execution of Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling, was completed Monday by Horace Allen, at Newport. The black caps were made by Chas. Manget, of Newport. Jackson's body will be taken to New Jersey for burial.

Gov. Bradley received a letter from Cincinnati warning him that he would be killed if he permitted Walling to hang.

Glanders in Bourbon.

DR. FRANK EISENMEN, State Veterinarian, of Louisville, was here this week consulting with Dr. John W. Jameson, veterinary surgeon, of this city, regarding the sickness of three horses owned by Isaac Keller, of Kiserston precinct. They found the horses to be affected with glanders, as Dr. Jameson stated last week. Glanders is a very contagious disease dangerous to both man and beast. It is said that several horses in the Kiserston neighborhood have died with glanders, and several cases are reported near Cynthiana.

Corner Stone Laying.

THE corner stone of the new Methodist Church will be laid with appropriate services Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. Howard Henderson, a former pastor, Rev. E. G. B. Mann, the present pastor, and several former pastors will take part in the services. If the weather should be disagreeable the services after the laying of the corner stone, will be held at the Second Presbyterian Church.

This will be a notable occasion for a plucky congregation, and the new building will be the result of much hard and earnest work to secure it.

Pearl Bryan's Murderers Confess.

Extra editions of Cincinnati papers at three o'clock yesterday afternoon announced that Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling had made a confession. The points of the reported confession are as follows:

Dr. George B. Wagner, of Bellevue, Campbell county, Ky., assisted them in their crime.

Pearl Bryan was taken to Dr. Wagner's residence on Wednesday night of the fatal week.

The murder was committed on the following Friday night, January 31, 1896.

After the murder Dr. Wagner became crazy and was sent to the Lexington Insane Asylum.

This confession is the first evidence as to the whereabouts of Pearl Bryan on Wednesday night.

Dr. Wagner, who now sane, denies all knowledge of the affair.

News Of The Big Fight.

BOB FITZSIMMONS defeated Jim Corbett Wednesday at Carson City, for the championship of the world, for $25,000, for fame and pugilistic popularity, and a share of the kinetoscope money. Corbett's share of the latter will be $13,000. Fitzsimmons won the battle in the fourteenth round, knocking Corbett out.

On the second page is given a three-column dispatch from Carson, detailing the fight by rounds. Read it.

Nearly a hundred Parisians heard the telegraphic bulletins at Odd Fellows Hall received by arrangement of Mr. Joe Grosche from Carson City. The news of Corbett's defeat came like a thunderbolt to his admirers in this city. There were but few Fitzsimmons men in the crowd.

Riley Grannon, of this city, Byron McClelland and Tommy Shannon, of Lexington, had their money down on the winner at good odds. Grannon, who has been in the West for several months, was at the fight.

Nat Goodwin won $800 on Fitzsimmons.

Turnpike Anarchy.

THE Governor has issued a reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of anyone of the toll-gate raiders who terrorized Mercer County Monday night. One of the mobs shot gatekeeper Adkinson and burned a toll-house, and other raiders destroyed six gates.

In Fleming Tuesday night several gates were demolished, and a note was left for Hon. Rollo Hart, a turnpike director, threatening to whetcap him if the gate was replaced. Nearly every gatekeeper in the county has been warned not to collect toll again.

Two tollgates in the North end of Scott county were destroyed a few nights ago, and two of the suspected raiders have been arrested.

Judge Saufley, charging the Grand Jury at Lancaster, on turnpike raids, said: "A mob is made up of cowards and one determined man can put it to flight."

Turnpike raiders have begun operation in Garrard county. Six toll-gates were destroyed Tuesday night by a mob, the members of which made no efforts at concealment. Two of the party were recognized by a gate-keeper at Buckeye and warrants have been sworn out for their arrests. A special grand jury may be impaneled to investigate the raid.

A Baby Abandoned.

ABOUT three o'clock Tuesday morning unknown parties abandoned a light colored mulatto boy baby, three hours old, in the yard of Frank O'Neill, on Penn avenue, just back of the Paris cemetery.

The nude child was placed in a cotton flour sack and left in a basket. Though there was frost on the basket and sack when the waif was found by Mr. Neill about four o'clock, the child had apparently not suffered from exposure.

There was no clue to the parentage of the babe. It was furnished clothing by Mr. and Mrs. Hooker Stivers, neighbors to O'Neill, and the waif is now being cared for by an old colored woman.

Dr. Vincent's Lectures.

DR. LEON H. VINCENT, of Philadelphia, a lecturer of National fame, entertained an appreciative audience last night at the Court house with fine lecture on "Emerson, The Man." Dr. Vincent lectured in Cincinnati yesterday morning on "Anthony Trollope and Chas. Reade," and will lecture there again this evening on "Emerson."

High School Tournament.

THE Blue Grass Tournament, the outgrowth of the Blue Grass Declamatory Contest League, will be held in Harrodsburg the latter part of May. There will be a contest for a prize, from spelling to geometry; also a declamatory contest for both boys and girls. The Tournament proper will follow these exercises, when there will be much competition in athletic sport, races, ball games, etc. The musical contest will also be of interest as both vocal and instrumental music will be on the programme. Prof. Bell, of the Harrodsburg graded school, will have charge of the tournament.
